IN ADVANCE.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE is now the largest paper printed in the State, and having the matter published in the DAILY to select from, we challenge comparison with any newspaper in Wisconsin. In correct political doctrine, in reliable market reports, in giving the latest news from all quarters, in literary merit and in local information relating to this city and county we shall spare no pains to make the WEEKLY GAZETTE worthy of public patronage and support.

The News.

There is no truth in the rumor of Mrs. Lincoln's death. At last accounts she was gradually recovering.

General Grant has arrived at Raleigh and given Johnston notice that the agreement consented to by Sherman has been annulled by the Administration, and will no doubt add that he will immediately "move upon the enemy's works."

The North Carolina papers are exultant over the prospect of peace. They say revolution has failed and secession is dead.

There is news in Richmond to the effect that General Johnston while negotiating with General Sherman, marched off most of his troops towards South Carolina.

Northern troops were ordered to the front yesterday from several camps.

The neighbors of ex-President Pierce, not seeing any evidences of mourning about that gentleman's residence, waited on him in a body when Mr. Pierce made a speech, expressing sorrow at the death of the President, and detestation at the crime of assassination.

Sherman.

It has been strongly intimated that Gen. Sherman was once afflicted with a fit of temporary insanity, and some of the public journals in the country attribute his late extraordinary negotiations with Joe Johnston to a return of that affliction. Certainly, with the light that we now have, his conduct is inexplicable upon any other ground. A General who has conducted, if he did not plan, one of the most brilliant campaigns of modern times, and whose glory bid fair to eclipse the fame of the Lieutenant General himself, would not be likely to surrender every principle that the country has won at so great a sacrifice of blood, if he were in his senses. The Milwaukee Sentinel says:

There is certainly abundant room for surprise—indeed for amazement at Sherman's action; nevertheless we have not the least suspicion that he has been animated by any other motive than an honorable and most worthy one. He has been momentarily dazzled by the idea of making peace from the Potomac to the Rio Grande. His excellent judgment in matters military has been at fault in diplomacy, and his blunder, so far as he is concerned, will at most bear no worse interpretation than revealing him as a very poor diplomatist, and as very easily outwitted when he gets out of his specialty. Probably one of those fits of craziness for which he once had credit has returned, on his faculties being relieved momentarily from the strain of war. His order, however, has in it some points that indicate a remarkably sound mind. We must wait for further and fuller light before pronouncing unqualifiedly on his action.

The Right Man in the Right Place.

The notorious DICK TURNER who acted as turnkey for a long time of the Libby Prison at Richmond, is now securely locked up in the deepest and most loathsome subterranean dungeon of that hated and memorable place of suffering. He's the right man in the right place. DICK combined within himself all the infernal qualities of the devil with the lower and more brutal ones of the slave holder. A correspondent who saw the cruel-hearted man, described him pale as leprosy, his beard whitened, his deficient teeth ajar, and his eyes full of terror. He is as mean and cringing in his behavior, as in power he was insolent and cruel. When turnkey, he shot men dead, with a revolver, who came to the window for air and light, kicked and knocked down others, and took delight in augmenting the untold miseries of the poor soldiers under his charge. He has heard in his loathsome cell, that the soldiers have decreed his death, so soon as they are fully assured of his identity, and his pleadings for mercy are presented to all who come near him; but he pleads to hearts of stone.

A SPECIAL telegram to the London Times, dated Berlin, April 6, says: "The plague continues at St. Petersburg. The total number of cases is 10,000, and of deaths 2,000. There are 100 cases a day. Forty physicians are dead. The Ismaloff Barracks are converted into hospitals. Precautionary measures are taken in Moscow, where the food and lodgings of the laboring class are inspected by the police. It is not cholera, but plague, with dilated pupils, carbuncles and pestilential bubo."

AT the capture of Mobile Maury with the remnant of his army escaped in boats up the Alabama River. Nearly all the people that remained in the city professed Union sentiments. It is believed that Maury will try to form a junction with Johnston, and if they succeed in getting together in the mountains of Alabama, or the interior of Georgia, they will probably have forty or fifty thousand men.

GEORGE STONE was tarred and feathered at Swampscott, on Saturday, for cheering at the death of the President; and Major Otis Wright, of Lowell, Superintendent of the Middlessex Horse railroad, narrowly escaped hanging for expressing joy at Mr. Lincoln's death. Fifteen minutes were finally given him in which to leave the city, never to return.

PRESTON KING, of New York, has gone to Washington, and a newspaper says "Mr. King will no doubt be one of President Johnson's most influential advisers. He has been his constant friend and attendant since the inauguration of the 4th of March."

A BLACKSMITH at Brankfield, Mass., who expressed joy because of the murder, left town on a notice of fifteen minutes, as an alternative to a suit of tar and feathers.

State News.

An elopement occurred in Hudson, last Saturday night, which has caused that quiet village to throw summersaults. A newly married man named John Wyatt, a precious villain, who thinks that variety is the spice of life, induced a young country girl to abscond with him. They were followed to Prescott and arrested by the Sheriff.——The Swift Hospital at Prairie du Chien is highly spoken of. But thirteen deaths have occurred there in six months. It has skilful surgeons, nurses and diet-cooks.——Two men named Henry Carter and James Farrer, of Madison, became intoxicated in a saloon on Friday afternoon, and Henry varied the amusements of the day by accidentally discharging a pistol into Farrer's foot.——Thirty-nine persons were confirmed at the Episcopal Church in Manitowoc, last Thursday evening. The body of the mate of the Argo, who was drowned in Manitowoc harbor a short time since, has been recovered.——A sail boat, 40 feet long, is about being built to be used for pleasure excursions on Lake Mendota; and in the same connection it is reported that a hotel is to be built on Picnic Point to accommodate boarders and pleasure seekers.——The grain market at Madison has been so neglected during the past week that the sales were not sufficient to make reliable quotations.——There is much lung sickness in Hudson.——The Portage City Register says the steamer Lady Jane, which left here about two weeks since, was lost on the Rock Island Bridge on Thursday. Mr. James Schultz recently of this city, was on board with his family, bound for Louisiana and was drowned. Mr. C. G. Chase, also of this city, was one of the principal owners of the boat, having recently invested all of his property in it. We have also been informed that several parties of this city had considerable freight aboard the boat and her barges. The loss is not yet fully known.——Funeral obsequies for the President, were observed at Ozaukee, where they mobbed United States officers less than three years ago.——The Wool Growers' Association of Wisconsin, meet at Whitewater, May 9th.——Winter wheat looks well in Walworth county.——A young lady entered a bookstore in La Crosse, recently, and enquired for "The Silent Woman." The dealer who is notoriously sarcastic, and a bachelor by birth, replied "there was no such edition in existence."——Col. J. J. Guppy, recently elected Judge of Columbia county, is home on a furlough.——Three hundred scholars at the High School, Fond du Lac, last term, and not a mark on the building with knife, pen or pencil, by one of them.

IT is said that General Lee designs, if he can recover his Arlington estate, to retire to Europe and either seek a situation in some of the great continental armies, or spend the remnant of his days in retirement divided between reflection, study and devotion. That he will not recover his Arlington estate may be set down as certain. Probably the best thing he could do would be to join the church and devote the remainder of his life to penitence and prayer.

A BAPTIST clergyman from Bellingham, Mass., preached by exchange in Milford last Sabbath morning. Neither in prayer or sermon did he recognize the great woe that was oppressing the heart of every hearer. The omission was so clearly intentional that at the close of the first service a committee of the church waited upon the unfaithful preacher, and ordered him to leave town immediately, which he did.

RICHMOND letters say the river is washing away the grave yard on Belle Isle, where Union soldiers were buried, and in a few years the graves will all disappear. Most of them have head-boards, made of barrel staves, but few names are readable and soon none at all will be. In one portion of Potter's Field the rebels had dug a large ditch, into which the bodies of Union prisoners who had died were thrown promiscuously, without the least pretension to even decent burial.

MR. WILLIAM HUNTER, who is now Acting Secretary of State, is a son of the late William Hunter, of Newport, R. I., the former minister to Brazil. He has for many years been chief clerk in the State Department. He is, by his long experience in the affairs of that department as well as by his high abilities and high character, well fitted for the task to which he has now been called.

THE Milwaukee News says that "It is to be regreted that the first positive act of the cabinet under the presidency of Mr. Johnson should have been a formal disapprobation of the course adopted by Gen. Sherman for the permanent establishment of peace." Joe Johnston will undoubtedly say the same thing when he hears of it.

THE New York Herald is authorized by Mr Edwin Booth to state that the assertion that Captain Beall was connected with his family, is without a shadow of foundation. There is not only no relationship of any degree, but there has never been the remotest acquaintance with him on the part of any member of his family.

COLONEL BROWNING, of Washington, who for the last four or five years has been the confidential secretary of President Johnson, is still acting as his private secretary.

Order of General Sherman.

Annexed is the order of Gen. Sherman, issued with reference to the terms of surrender agreed upon by himself and Gen. Johnston:

Headquarters Military Division of the Miss., in the Field, Raleigh, N. C., April 19, 1865.—Special Field Order No, 58.—The General commanding announces to the army a suspension of hostilities and an agreement with Gen. Johnston and high officials, which, when formally ratified, will make peace from the Potomac to the Rio Grande. Until absolute peace is arranged, a line passing through Tyrill's Mount, Chapel Hill, University, Durham Station and West Point, on the Neuse river, will separate the armies. Each army commander will group his camp entirely with a view to comfort, health and good police. All details of military discipline must still be maintained. The General hopes and believes that in a very few days it will be his good fortune to conduct you all to your homes.

The fame of this army for courage, industry and discipline is admitted all over the world. Then let each officer and man see that it is not stained by any act of vulgarity, rowdyism and petty crime.

Cavalry will patrol the front of the lines. Gen. Howard will take charge of the district from Raleigh up to the cavalry. Gen. Slocum to the left of Raleigh, and Gen. Schofield in Raleigh, its left and rear. The quartermaster and commissaries will keep their supplies up to a light load for the wagons, and the railroad superintendent will arrange a depot for the convenience of each separate army.

By order of
MAJ. GEN. W. T. SHERMAN.
L. M. DAYTON, A. A. G.

HON. LAFAYETTE FOSTER, the present acting Vice President, is a gentleman of distinguished abilities, and of the highest character. He was born in Franklin, Conn., in 1806, and graduated at Brown University in 1828. He was early distinguished at the bar of his native State, and was long a Speaker in the lower House of the Legislature. He took his seat for the first time in the National Senate March 4, 1855, and entered upon his second term in 1861.

COL. THOS. S. ALLEN, of the 5th Wisconsin, in a letter to Adjutant General Gaylord, written on the 10th inst., recommends the promotion of Sergeant Angus Cameron, of Company C, for "special gallantry in action." "This sergeant," writes Col. Allen, "in company with only five of my men, on the skirmish line, captured Gen. Ewell and staff on the 6th inst."

AT Hartford, Conn., Wednesday, a fellow insulted a lady who was hanging out some mourning emblems, and was pursued by a crowd, who knocked him down and hammered him until a good deal of bad blood was left on the sidewalk.

AT New Haven, on Saturday, a party of soldiers marched over to Fairhaven, where a treason talker lived, called him out and made him give a formal bond of $3,000 to appear when wanted, and returned to camp.

MR. SEWARD was born in Florida, Orange county, New York, May 16th, 1801, and is therefore aged nearly 64 years. Mr. Frederick Seward is the eldest son of the Secretary and is about 35 years of age.

OF the 26,000 men in Lee's army, surrendered to Gen Grant, 21,000 had no arms, having thrown them away on the retreat. This shows how thoroughly it was defeated.

GIBBON says that the word assassin was the name of an Asiatic tribe which existed in the 12th century, who stealthily stabbed all who would not accept the Mohammedan religion.

VICE-PRESIDENT HAMLIN'S OPINION OF PRESIDENT JOHNSON.—A Bangor letter says: Mr. Hamlin assures us that from a most intimate acquaintance with his successor for eighteen years, he knows the country has no reason to doubt that in Mr. Johnson's hands the cause which all loyal citizens now have so much at heart will receive no harm, that the new President has a soul full of the good of his country, a will to enforce it, and a determination which no sympathy with rebellion can ever swerve a tittle from its true object. No recent occurrence has had the effect upon Hamlin's mind to diminish in the least the confidence he has always felt that in the selection of Mr. Johnson the people made no mistake. Considering the position of Mr. Hamlin and his connection with Mr. Johnson on the occasion alluded to, the assurance has great weight.

THE Terre Haute Express says that a Mrs. Dunbar, of that city, said on Monday evening that she was glad of President Lincoln's death, and were she near his grave would take pleasure in dancing on it. This was more than the loyal women of the neighborhood could bear, and accordingly on Tuesday a dozen or more went to her house and forced her to take in hand a flag draped in mourning and proceed up town, shouting at intervals, "Hurrah for the Union." The ladies formed in line, and as the novel procession passed through the principal streets no little commotion was caused. The ladies were allowed to proceed without let or hindrance, and the universal verdict was, "served her right." While the procession was passing along Main street a number of citizens made up a purse of twenty-six dollars and sixty cents and presented the same to the patriotic ladies.

A CANDID CONFESSION.—Gov. Bramlette, of Kentucky, speaking of President Lincoln, says:

We have differed with him, but when the judgement of future events has come, we find we are differing blindly, that he was right we were wrong.

THE Israelite of Cincinnati says the event of last week, in Washington, gave "MARTYRS to the cause of liberty, and to the cause of slavery, ASSASSINS."

The Late Richard Cobden.

Richard Cobden was born at Dunford, near Midhurst, Sussex, in 1804. On the death of his father, a small farmer, he was taken charge of by his uncle, a warehouseman, in London. He became a commercial traveler, and in this capacity visited various parts of the world, including the United States in 1835. By this time he had become a partner in a cotton printing establishment near Manchester, and built up a prosperous business. In 1835 he published two pamphlets, entitled "England, Ireland and America, by a Manchester Manufacturer," and "Russia." In 1837 he was an unsuccessful candidate for the representation of Stockport, and subsequently traveled in France, Belgium, Germany and Switzerland. In 1836 he took a leading part in establishing the well known and powerul anti-corn league. He was elected for Stockport in 1841, commencing his political career in the first year of Sir Robert Peel's second administration. He immediately took a high rank as a parliamentary speaker. He spoke and voted for the repeal of the corn laws, which measure was carried and received the royal assent June 26, 1846. Sir Robert Peel in retiring from office shortly after, attributed the repeal of the corn laws chiefly to Mr. Cobden, and his services were acknowledged by the nation, in a handsome subscription of $350,000, on the receipt of which he retired from business and purchased the property near Midhurst, on which he had been born, and which he formerly owned. In 1845—7 he was returned to Parliament for Stockport, and also for the West Riding of Yorkshire. He decided to sit for the latter, and was re-elected in 1852. Meantime he had become an active member of the Peace Society, and published several pamphlets advocating the settlement of national disputes by arbitration. He opposed the war with Russia, and in 1857 voted to censure Lord Palmerston for entering into the war with China. The latter vote caused his rejection by his constituents.

His latter career is well known in the United States, associated as his name has been with that of Mr. Bright, at the head of the so called extreme Liberal Party.

WILL THE CANADIANS LOOK ON BOOTH AS A BELLIGERENT?—We should like to ask the friends of Judge Smith two questions. If Booth should escape to Canada, be arrested and brought before Judge Smith, and it should be found that the assassination of Mr. Lincoln was authorized by a Confederate officer, would the Judge refuse his extradition on the ground of the belligerent character of the act? Would he declare that the Ashburton treaty was abrogated, and refuse to surrender the assassin? We pause for a reply. To our minds there would be as much reason for refusing to give up Booth as the St. Albans' raiders, supposing that Booth could prove that he had authority from some officer of the Confederate States to commit the deed, which he probably had.—Toronto Globe, April 18.

A PET PANTHER.—An old hunter of Southwestern Texas, who had long had a pet panther of great size and ferocity, was recently attacked in his cabin by Indians. He let them gain the lower part of the house, and then let the panther loose among them, he being safely perched upon the loose chamber floor, through which he could watch the progress of events. But after the first howl and spring of the panther no Indian remained, except three killed by the brute and one shot by the old hunter. The rest disappeared, probably never to return.

A MODEST PROPOSAL.—The N. Y. World gravely suggests and argues the expediency of Seward's retirement from his official position, since his reputation is unsavory at the South, and the sensitive soul of chivalry will revolt at the idea of return to the Union with such an uncongenial Secretary of State! Of course the same theory would have applied to Lincoln had he not been removed by the assassin's hand, to Chief Justice Chase, and, in fine, to the whole Union party. Is not this the carnival of effrontery? And who can fathom the depths of Copperheadism?

LIKENESSES OF MR. LINCOLN AND HIS MURDERER.—Mr. Hanchett, at the news depot in the Post Office, has received a lot of these photographs which are for sale. He has also the Atlantic and Harper for May.

THE following telegraph dispatch was received by McKey & Bro. from Edward McKey:

NEW YORK, April 25, 1865.
Sheeting and cotton goods generally have advanced 20 per cent. Goods scarce and still advancing.

FOR THE FRONT.—Five hundred Wisconsin soldiers passed through here yesterday on their way to the front, if anybody can tell where that is. As the rebels now present nothing but their backs, wouldn't it be proper to say that they are on their way to the rear.

DEPARTURE OF THE 52d REGIMENT.—The 52d regiment under charge of Lieut. Col. Lewis, passed through here last night on their way to St. Louis, where they have been ordered. Mr. F. B. Searle, of this city, is hospital steward of this regiment, and will doubtless make an excellent officer.

WANTED.—We will pay a liberal price for three copies of the Daily Gazette of January 20, 1864; three copies of February 15, 1864, one copy of January 30, 1864; one copy of November 7, 1864, and two copies of September 27, 1864.

Also, three copies of the Weekly of January 29, 1864: three of June 3, 1864.

THE Ladies' Aid Society will meet at their room as usual, on Thursday. It is desirable that all articles prepared for the Chicago Fair be brought in by the 10th of May. The places of deposit will be at the residences of Mr. P. L. Smith, on the east side of the river, and of Mr. P. D. Warner and Josiah Wright, on the west side.

RAILROAD BUSINESS.—Some idea of the railroad business done at this point may be known when it is stated that the ticket agent sold over one hundred and fifty tickets yesterday, and that there was nothing more than usual occurring to take people away from home. It is worthy of remark in this connection, that there are no less than twenty depots in Rock County affording facilities for travel unsurpassed by any county in Wisconsin.

The train on the Northwestern road last night was composed of fourteen passenger coaches filled to overflowing.

ELLENGER & FOOTE'S COMBINATION.—Our citizens are soon to have an opportunity of witnessing the performances of those celebrated little folks, Com. Foote and sister, and Col. Small, the three smallest people now living. There is, also in connection with them, a very fine musical company, which adds much to the pleasure of the entertainment. The performances of the little people are said to be really wonderful, and create great excitement wherever they have appeared. They are not half the size of Tom Thumb and wife, or Com. Nutt, are well educated pretty, and sing and dance in the most pleasing manner. They will appear at Lappin's Hall on Friday evening, April 28, and also on Saturday afternoon and evening. Go early and get a good seat, as the Halls are always crowded. Tickets for sale at the book store of Leavitt & Dearborn and at the door.

SEWING-MACHINES.—Of the many inventions and improvements of sewing-machines, none have so satisfactorily stood the test of time and service as Grover & Baker's. They have taken the highest premiums at the recent State Fairs of fifteen States; they have, moreover, received the warmest encomiums from all persons who have ever used the machines, and those who have had opportunities to compare the different styles of machines, generally prefer Grover & Baker's to any other. They do the work neatly and well, do not get out of order, and are readily adapted to any kind of sewing. We would advise our lady readers, who are in want of a sewing-machine, to call at Grover and Baker's. —Brooklyn Standard.

THE WAR FOR THE UNION!

Important from Sherman!

His Conference with Johnston!

ADDITIONAL PARTICULARS!

Rumored Treachery of Johnston!

OFFICIAL BULLETIN.

War Department, Washington, April 25—10:25 p. m.—To Major General Dix:—A dispatch has just been received by this Department from General Grant, dated Raleigh, April 24, 10 a. m. He says: "I reached here this morning, and delivered to General Sherman the reply to his negotiations with Johnston. Word was immediately sent to Johnston terminating the truce, and the information that civil matters cannot be entertained in any convention between army commanders." E. M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

FROM NORTH CAROLINA.

New York, April 26.—The Raleigh Standard of the 17th says: "The revolution has failed. Mr. Lincoln has made good his declaration that he would 'Hold, occupy and possess the property of the United States, that he would enforce the laws of the nation.' The most ultra secessionist must now see that further resistance would be folly, madness and murder." It calls for reorganization and declares that the Governor and Legislature elected by force and fraud do not reflect the wishes or the will of the people. Patronage and the bayonet have controlled everything. We are authorized by Gen. Sherman to state that if Gov. Vance and the Legislature will return, they will be protected. If they do not they must not complain if steps are taken to supercede them.

The next day this paper said: "Davis has fled; Vance has fled; Smith has fled; secession is dead; treason has been extinguished in its own blood and the old flag once more waves proudly over the Capitol of every State. Thank God for it. The period so long looked for and labored for by the true men of this State has at last arrived. Let those who have identified themselves with the Davis and Vance despotisms, prepare to retire to private life. Politically, they are doomed men for all time to come."

The following is General Sherman's order announcing the assassination:

Headquarters, Military Division of the Miss., in the field, Raleigh, April 17th.—Special Field Order No. 50.—The General in command announces with pain and sorrow that on the evening of the 14th inst. at the theatre in Washington, His Excellency, the President of the United States, Abraham Lincoln, was assassinated by one who uttered the State motto of Virginia. At the same time the Secretary of State, Mr. Seward, while suffering from a broken arm was also stabbed by another murderer in his own house, but still lives, and his son was wounded, it is supposed fatally. It is supposed by persons capable of judging, that other high officials were designed to share the same fate. Thus it seems that our enemy despairing of meeting us in manly warfare begins to resort to the assassin's tools. Your General does not wish you to infer that this feeling is general. He knows that the great mass of the confederate army would scorn to sanction such acts, but he believes it the legitimate consequences of rebellion against rightful authority. We have met every phase which the war has assumed, and must now be prepared for it in its last phase—that of assassination and guerrillas, who will seek to expend their wild passions in such a manner for revenge.

By order of
MAJ. GEN. W. T. SHERMAN.
L. MARTIN, Maj. and A. A. G.

New York, April 26.—Special to the Times dated Washington 25th says: We have information from Sherman's army of an important character. It appears that Johnston's first letter to Gen. Sherman proposed a surrender of his army on the same terms that Lee surrendered. A meeting was arranged at which Wade Hampton was present. He protested against the terms of surrender, and declared that he would not surrender his cavalry force, supposed to be only about 3,000 strong. Thereupon Sherman consented to delay for the purpose of giving Johnston and Hampton an opportunity to consult Davis. Another meeting was arranged for the next day. On that day the parties again met, and at the first sitting the remarkable memoranda or basis of agreement was presented and at once signed.

New York, April 26.—The World's Raleigh correspondent of the 19th, says the conferences between Sherman and Johnston have come to a conclusion which is believed in the army to be eminently satisfactory. What passed at the interviews they had, is probably known only to themselves. When they met they locked arms, walked together into the house where the conferences took place and shut themselves up for several hours, leaving their respective followers and staff officers to fraternize and get along as they best could. No one who accompanied Gen. Sherman has any idea of what subjects were discussed or what terms were proposed, accepted or declined. Gen. Sherman is never a communicative man with respect to matters of importance, and on this occasion was more reticent than ever.

The Herald's Washington special says there is news in Richmond to the effect that Gen. Johnston while negotiating with Gen. Sherman, marched off most of his troops towards South Carolina.

FROM EUROPE.

New York, April 26.—A dispatch from Lisbon, dated the 11th, after speaking of the relations existing between the United States and Portugal, says the Governor of Belem was dismissed, not for having fired into the Union ships when they were approaching the bar, but for continuing to fire when they had struck their flag and already turned towards Lisbon.

At a public demonstration of the citizens in favor of the amicable relations between the two countries, a reciprocal salute had taken place in honor of the respective flags.

FROM WASHINGTON.

New York, April 26.—The Times Washington special says: Some days ago we gave an account of the arrest of Paine who it is alleged, attempted the assassination of Secretary Seward. Yesterday it was discovered that this person had attempted to take his own life by butting his head against the iron walls of his prison. It was found that he had beaten his head almost into a jelly and was bleeding profusely. A cap was prepared for him, padded all over and fastened securely upon his head, and his hands secured so that he can do himself no further injury.

Washington, April 26.—The Committee on the Conduct of the War have nearly finished their examination of Gen. Rosecrans. The General to-day received from Richmond an official rebelimap of the battle of Stone River, which shows more clearly than has ever been seen before how much the advantages of the day were lost by the blunders of a notorious Kentucky division commander, whose troops first gave way.

A letter from Petersburg, of yesterday, speaks of a report current there that Johnston has slipped away from Sherman's front while the negotiations were pending, and is making his way into Louisiana.

Gen. Butler is expected to start home in a day or two.

The men drawn at the last draft in this district have been dismissed.

THE FUNERAL CORTEGE.

The World says one of the striking features of the funeral procession yesterday, was the applause showered upon the representatives of the colored race, upon the line of march in the wealthier parts of the city. The scene in Fifth Avenue was one continual ovation to the negroes who were compelled to keep their heads uncovered for miles in acknowledgement of the applause and the waving of the handkerchiefs of the ladies in the windows. A great city is New York! Less than two years ago it was as much as a negro's life was worth so be seen walking the streets.

LETTER OF JOHN WILKES BOOTH.

Proof that He Meditated His Crime Months Ago—Confesses that He was Engaged in a Plot to Capture and Carry Off the President—His Excuses for the Contemplated Act—His Participation in the Execution of John Brown—A Secession Rapsody.

[From the Philadelphia Inquirer.]

The following verbatim copy of a letter, in writing which is the handwriting of John Wilkes Booth, the murderer of President Lincoln, has been furnished us by the Hon. William Millward, United States Marshal of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. It was handed over to that officer by John S. Clark, who is a brother-in law of Mr. Booth. The history connected with it is somewhat peculiar. In November, 1864, the paper was deposited with Mr. Clarke by Booth, in a sealed envelope, "for safe keeping," Mr. Clarke being ignorant of its contents. In January last Booth called at Mr. Clarke's house, asked for the package and it was given up to him. It is now supposed that at that time he took out the paper and added to it his signature, which appears to be in a different ink from that used in the body of the letter, and also from the language employed could not have been put to it originally. Afterward he returned the package to Mr. Clarke again for safe keeping, sealed and bearing the superscription "J. Wilkes Booth."

The inclosure was preserved by the family without suspicion of its nature. After the afflicting information of the assassination of the President, which came upon the family of Mr. Clarke with crushing force, it was considered proper to open the envelope. There were found in it the following paper, with some Seven-thirty United States bonds, and certificates of shares in oil companies. Mr. Clarke promptly handed over the paper to Marshal Millward, in whose custody it now remains. From a perusal of this paper it seems to have been prepared by Booth, as a vindication of some desperate act which he had in contemplation: and from the language used it is probable it was a plot to abduct the President and carry him off to Virginia. If this was meditated, it failed, and from making a prisoner of the President to his assassination was an easy step for a man of perverted principles. It also appears that Booth was one of the party who was engaged in the capture and execution of John Brown, of Ossawattomie, at which time he doubtless imbibed from Wise and his associates those detestable sentiments of cruelty which have culminated in an infamous crime. The letter is as follows:

——, ——, 1864.

MY DEAR SIR: You may use this as you think best. But as some may wish to know when, who and why, and as I know not how to direct, I give it (in the words of your master)

"TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Right or wrong, God judge me, not man. For be my motive good or bad, of one thing I am sure, the lasting condemnation of the North.

I love peace more than life. Have loved the Union beyond expression. For four years have I waited, hoped and prayed for the dark clouds to break, and for a restoration of our former sunshine. To wait longer would be a crime. All hope for peace is dead. My prayers have proved as idle as my hopes. God's will be done. I go to see and share the bitter end.

I have ever held the South were right. The very nomination of Abraham Lincoln, four years ago, brought war—war upon Southern rights and institutions. His election proved it. "Await an overt act." Yes, till you are bound and plundered. What folly! The South was wise. Who thinks of argument or patience when the finger of his enemy presses on the trigger? In a foreign war I, too, could say "country, right or wrong." But in a struggle such as ours, (where the brother tries to pierce the brother's heart,) for God's sake, choose the right. When a country like this spurns justice from her side, she forfeits the allegiance of every honest freeman, and should leave him, untrammeled by any fealty soever, to act as his conscience may approve.

People of the North, to hate tyranny, to love liberty and justice, to strike at wrong and oppression was the teaching of our fathers. The study of our early history will not let me forget it, and may it never.

This country was formed for the white, not for the black man. And looking upon African slavery from the same stand-point held by the noble framers of our Constitution, I, for one, have ever considered it one of the greatest blessings (both for themselves and us) that God ever bestowed upon a favored nation. Witness heretofore our wealth and power; witness their elevation and enlightenment above their race elsewhere. I have lived among it all my life, and have seen less harsh treatment from master to man, than I have beheld in the North from father to son. Yet Heaven knows, no one would be willing to do more for the negro race than I, could I but see a way to still better their condition.

But Lincoln's policy is only preparing the way for their total annihilation. The South are not, nor have they been fighting for the continuance of slavery. The first battle of Bull Run did away with that idea. Their causes since for war have been as noble, and greater far than those that urged our fathers on. Even should we allow that they were wrong at the beginning of this contest, cruelty and injustice have made the wrong become the right, and they stand now (before the wonder and admiration of the world) as a noble band of patriotic heroes. Hereafter reading of their deeds, Thermopylæ will be forgotten.

When I aided in the capture and execution of John Brown, (who was a murderer on our western border, and who was fairly tried and convicted, before an impartial Judge and jury, of treason, and who, by the way, has since been made a god,) I was proud of my little share in the transaction, for I deemed it my duty, and that I was helping our common country to perform an act of justice. But what was a crime in poor John Brown, is now considered (by themselves) as the greatest and only virtue of the whole Republican party. Strange transmigration! Vice to become a virtue, simply because more indulge in it.

I thought then, as now, that the Abolitionists were the only traitors in the land, and that the entire party deserved the same fate of poor old Brown, not because they wish to abolish slavery, but on account of the means they ever endeavored to use to effect that abolition. If Brown were living, I doubt whether he himself would set slavery against the Union. Most or many in the North do, and openly curse the Union, if the South are to return and retain a single right guaranteed to them by every tie which we once revered as sacred. The South can make no choice. It is either extermination or slavery for themselves (worse than death) to draw from. I know my choice.

I have also studied hard to discover upon what grounds the right of a State to secede has been denied, when our very name, United States, and the Declaration of Independence, both provide for secession. But there is no time for words. I write in haste. I know how foolish I shall be deemed for undertaking such a step as this, where, on the one side, I have many friends and everything to make me happy, where my profession alone has gained me an income of more than twenty thousand dollars a year, and where my great personal ambition in my profession has such a great field for labor. On the other hand, the South have never bestowed upon me one kind word: a place where now I have no friends, except beneath the sod; a place where I must either become a private soldier or a beggar. To give up all the former for the latter, besides my mother and sisters whom I love so dearly (although they so widely differ with me in opinion,) seems insane; but God is my judge. I love justice more than I do a country that disowns it; more than fame and wealth; more (Heaven pardon me if wrong) than a happy home. I have never been upon a battle-field; but O, my countrymen, could you all but see the reality or effects of this horrid war, as I have seen them (in every State, save Virginia) I know you would think like me, and would pray the Almighty to create in the Northern mind a sense of right and justice, even should it possess no seasoning of mercy, and that He would dry up this sea of blood between us, which is daily growing wider. Alas! poor country, is she to meet her threatened doom? Four years ago I would have given a thousand lives to see her remain (as I had always known her) powerful and unbroken. And even now I would hold my life as naught, to see her what she was. O my friends, if the fearful scenes of the past four years had never been enacted, or if what has been had been but a frightful dream, from which we could now awake, with what overflowing hearts could we bless our God and pray for his continued favor. How I have loved the old flag can never now be known. A few years since and the entire world could boast of none so pure and spotless. But I have of late been seeing and hearing of the bloody deeds of which she has been made the emblem, and would shudder to think how changed she had grown. O how I have longed to see her break from the mist of blood and death that circles round her folds, spoiling her beauty and tarnishing her honor. But no, day by day has she been dragged deeper and deeper into cruelty and oppression, till now (in my eyes) her once bright red stripes look like bloody gashes on the face of Heaven. I look now upon my early admiration of her glories as a dream. My love (as things stand to-day) is for the South alone. Nor do I deem it a dishonor in attempting to make for her a prisoner of this man, to whom she owes so much of misery. If success attends me, I go penniless to her side. They say she has found that "last ditch" which the North have so long derided, and been endeavoring to force her in, forgetting they are brothers, and that it's impolitic to goad an enemy to madness. Should I reach her in safety and find it true, I will proudly beg permission to triumph or die in that same "ditch" by her side.

A Confederate doing duty upon his own responsibility. J. WILKES BOOTH.

How Some of the Rebels Talked After the Capture of Mobile.

A great many of the prisoners belonging to Thomas' division were mere boys, younger than any I had ever seen before, even in the rebel service. A good many were in a high state of excitement, not knowing what treatment they would receive at our hands. But they were speedily reassured by the kind and jovial language which our boys never fail to make use of toward their prisoners.

I walked up toward one lot of the humbled "secesh," and entered into conversation with a young man, not more than eighteen years old.

"Where do you belong?"

"To the —th Alabama Reserves."

"Have you ever been in action before?"

"No," said he, "this is my first, and I hope it will be my last fight."

"You havn't much love for this sort of thing, then?"

"No, indeed," said he, "I wish I were back in college again."

"Where did you go to college?" I asked.

"At Tuscaloosa."

"When did you leave there?"

"Only a few weeks ago."

"Were all the students taken from the school?"

"Not at that time," was the answer, "but I understand they have been since. I saw what was coming, and having an opportunity to get a commission, I came away."

"You are an officer then?" said I, in some surprise.

"O, yes," he replied, "First Lieutenant."

"And you would like to be back to your college again?"

"Indeed I would."

"Are you tired of the war already?" I inquired.

"There never has been a time when I was not tired of it."

"Why so?"

"Because," was his very sensible reply, "I don't think it ought ever to have been begun, and I don't see any good in keeping it up."

At this a score of young rebels who had been closely listening to our talk, broke in with "That's just what we think," "That's just what I say!" and other exclamations to the same effect.

"I presume then, you're glad you are captured?" said I to the "Lieutenant."

"Yes," said he, "most heartily glad of it."

"And so am I," "and I," "and I," exclaimed the "graybacks" standing around.

"Well," said the officer, "I hope we will be well treated."

"Oh, yes," said I, "you'll be treated well enough."

"Better than we deserve, you think!" said he with a laugh.

It was the very answer which had trembled on my tongue, but which my heart would not allow me to utter.

"At least," said I, "I hope your future conduct will show that you deserve it."

"I hope so," was the meek reply, and I shook hands with him and passed on.

AN AFFAIR OF HONOR.—During General Sherman's march through South Carolina, the following little affair of honor was brought to rather an abrupt termination. The correspondent of the Herald says: "On the 24th of February we captured about ten refugee trains, with valuable stores and supplies; also several animals. Among those captured were two officers, who were riding in a carriage when the Yanks pounced on them. They said they were a principal and second, going to fight a duel and that the others had gone before them to the place of rendezvous. The officer captured was Capt. W. F. DePass, a celebrated duelist, of South Carolina. His would-be antagonist was a Capt. W. A. Courtenay, a fighting quartermaster. Being chivalrous and obliging, we made every effort to catch the latter, in order to let them finish their little affair of honor, in our presence, but failed. It shows how ignorant they had been of all our movements, when officers could be so foolishly engaged at such a critical moment."—Charleston, (S. C.) Courier.

The Conference Between Sherman and Johnston.

"Peace from the Potomac to the Rio Grande, and I hope soon to lead you to your homes," were the cheering words in which General Sherman announced to his proud army the result of his two days' conference with General Johnston. The terms, as they were understood in the army—unconditional submission to the laws as they will be interpreted by the civil courts of the Federal Government—were received with perfect satisfaction.

Strange as it may seem, the actual terms as they are this morning published by authority from the War Department, were not known, even to those very high in authority, at the time your correspondent left that army. The terms, as understood, were believed to be of General Sherman's own choosing and declared by him to a conquered army, and their acceptance by the Government was not a question. So firm was the belief that absolute peace would be proclaimed from Washington that Gen. Sherman's announcement that he hoped soon to march his army homeward was accepted as a certainty, and preparations were accordingly made. The real conditions upon which the surrender was made, when known, will probably be as promptly rejected by the army as by President Johnston, his Cabinet and General Grant. General Sherman, we fear, has made a very grave mistake, and been fairly beaten by that cunning traitor, the rebel Secretary of War.

At the first meeting, at which General Johnston only was present, no terms were finally agreed upon. At the second meeting, however, at which Breckinridge officiated, conditions were finally accepted and papers signed. Johnston, on the first day, probably learned what Sherman's terms were, and, after full consultation with Jeff. Davis, who was at Hillsboro, concluded to accept them, taking Breckinridge with him, however, to draw up the papers. This important conference was held at the solicitation of the rebel General, who, on the 4th inst., sent by flag of truce a request for a cessation of hostilities till Grant could be sent for. Sherman answered immediately by saying that, if the surrender of his (Johnston's) army was the object of such a truce, he was competent to attend to such a want; but, if anything else was desired, he wished to know it, when he would decide whether or not it would be necessary to send for the Lieutenant General. Johnston was further informed that he (General Sherman) was ready to meet him at any time, to confer on the subject of his wants. This offer was promptly accepted, and the point of meeting was agreed upon at Mr. James Bennett's, a little hut on the left of the Chapel Hill road, five miles from Durham's Station, and thirty from Raleigh.

The memorable meeting took place. General Sherman accompanied by his right-hand man, his able Chief Engineer, Col. O. M. Poe, and General Barry, with others of his staff, met General Johnston, with Major Johnston and Captain Crampton, of his staff. Both Generals were accompanied by their cavalry Generals, Kilpatrick and Wade Hampton. Your correspondent, "V. H.," sends forward a lengthy and detailed account of this meeting, he being the only correspondent actually present during this memorable interview.

After the more important questions had been Settled, Generals Sherman and Johnston conversed freely and frankly. General Johnston fairly admitted that the grand Army of the Mississippi was the best that ever marched. "Why," said Johnston, "my engineers, my officers, and the people of South Carolina, all insisted upon it that no army could ever penetrate the Salkehatchie swamps, and you not only marched your army through them, but corduroyed and bridged them for miles, and then drew after you your immense supply train. The like could never have been done by any other army."

General Wade Hampton's action and conduct, in the light of such a manly and candid admission, are doubly disgusting. He denied that the South was conquered, or even worsted, and fully announced the theory that a Southern man could whip three Northern men. We believe that four years of war have at least reduced the odds, even in his opinion, from five to three.

During the interview of the two Generals, Colonel Poe and Major Johnston, Chief Engineers of the two armies, had a long and friendly interview. Major Johnston expressed his admiration for the engineering ability manifested by our army in its march through South Carolina. The two officers questioned each other about their department, and, at the rebel General's request, Poe showed him our plan of building pontoons. Major Johnston proved himself a thorough gentleman, and, as he parted from Major Hitchcock, expressed the hope that they would soon meet under more favorable circumstances.

In speaking of the armies in the Southwest, Sherman inquired where General Wilson, with his cavalry was. "He is at Columbus, Ga.," replied Johnston, "and I wish, for God's sake, that you would stop him, for he is raiding all through that country, tearing everything to the devil."

General Sherman then showed Johnston a dispatch he had just received from Gillmore, saying that Potter, with a force of infantry and cavalry, was finishing the work of devastation in South Carolina. Sherman forstalled Johnston's request to have that stopped by saying that he thought it would not hurt that people to bear a still heavier burden. "Let Potter burn a little longer," said he.

General Breckinridge was more reticent. He showed plainly how deep was his humiliation. He conversed, however, with those who addressed him, and to General Sherman, in a discussion as to the slavery question, made this remarkable confession: "The discussion of the slavery question is at an end. The amendment to the Constitution, forever forbidding slavery, is perfectly fair, and will be accepted in that spirit by the people of the South."

The news of the assassination of Mr. Lincoln was received by General Sherman, while at Kilpatrick's headquarters, on the way to his first day's meeting. We have it from General Sherman himself, that Johnston was shocked, and manifested as much feeling and concern as an intimate friend would have done: and well he might, for the exasperated soldiery of the Union army would have desolated the land from the right to the left. The rebel chieftain, expressing himself deeply pained at the unfortunate event, was told that it would be politic in him to publish a disclaimer of any connection or knowledge of the deed, or the conduct of our army could not be answered for.

Jeff. Davis, it is confidently believed, will attempt to leave the country, and it was currently reported that he had already started for Mexico. He is to be joined by the Hamptons, Rossers, and other last ditch men, and will unite with the French. General Sherman has said that he would not go out of the way to capture Davis, for they would not hang him if caught.

Johnston has been notified ere this, that the terms of surrender agreed upon cannot be accepted, and that the truce, at the expiration of the forty-eight hours, must end; but we predict that there will be no fighting.

Johnston's army is about Chapel Hill, twenty-five miles from Raleigh, with his left wing on the Haw river. His retreat has been cut off by Stoneman, who is thought to be now on his flank, and has so destroyed the road that it cannot be repaired. Sheridan is near at hand, and, with Kilpatrick and Stoneman, can alone handle Johnston's army which does not now number over 30,000 men, demoralized and already beaten. Johnston can do nothing, then, but surrender unconditionally. We think General Sherman has lost nothing by his truce.

The Conspirators Sentenced.

[From the Chicago Tribune.]

The trial of the Chicago conspirators has ended, the sentences have been pronounced and approved and the court has adjourned. Buckner S. Morris and Vincent Marmaduke are acquitted and Charles Walsh and Richard T. Semmes were found guilty of the entire charges and specifications, to wit: of conspiracy for the relief of the prisoners at Camp Douglas, and of conspiring to "lay waste and destroy" the city of Chicago. Walsh is sentenced to imprisonment for five years from Nov. 17th, 1864, and Semmes to imprisonment at hard labor for three years from the date of sentence. The findings against G. St. Leger Grenfel have not been officially promulgated, but it is stated that he is found guilty and sentenced to death at such time and place as Gen. Hooker shall designate. The penitentiary at Columbus, Ohio, is designated as the place of confinement of Walsh and Semmes. The trial has been long, mainly by reason of the course pursued by the defense whose aim has been to protract it so as to tire out the perseverence of the prosecution and the patience of the court and people. The court have performed their arduous duties with great ability and fairness. The result will doubtless be satisfactory to the people. It is proved that this great crime was in all its naked deformity and depravity actually committed. It follows that the Copperhead statement published in the rebel organ in this city, charging that the entire plot and arrest of these Copperhead traitors and assassins were invented by the Union Republicans of Chicago as an electioneering trick, was the subterfuge of conscious guilt trying to cover up its tracks and to rub out the stains of its own attempted crimes. The same organ now impugns the "competency" of the court. It may consider itself fortunate that it has not had an opportunity to argue the question of jurisdiction on its own behalf before a similar tribunal. Its opposition to such courts originates in a feeling of uneasiness about its own safety. For

"Thief never felt the halter draw
"With good opinion of the law."

WHAT'S IN A NAME.—The elder Booth, the great tragedian, must have had a taste for revolutionists and assassins. His own Christian name was Junius Brutus, the same as that of the Roman who slew Tarquin, and his name-sake who killed Julius Cæsar. One of his sons has the same Christian name. John Wilkes, the name which the President's assassin bears, was that of an English radical, editor of the North Briton, famous in English history for his assault upon the character of King George III. He was committed to the Tower, was afterward outlawed and fled to France, returned to England, was elected to Parliament, refused a seat, and was the cause of a great riot which the military had to subdue. It must have been admiration of the qualities of such characters which induced the father to give these names to his sons.

A COLORED woman at Portsmouth, Va., appealing in prayer to the Savior for healing mercies, said, "Thou art de doctor dat never lost a patient." Another, in Petersburg, being congratulated on the change for the better which was likely to affect the whole city, exclaimed: "Bress my soul! doesn't I see it a'ready? Isn't I a free woman now? De Lord can make heaven out of hell any time, I do believe."

LATEST NEWS.—Peace! Peace! Peace!—Having just returned from the East, where the prices of goods are controlled by the gold market, and having purchased a large stock of ready made clothing, cloths and gentlemen's furnishing goods, at the very lowest prices, I am prepared to sell them at lower figures than ever before offered in this State since the war commenced. I have made up my mind to leave this city, and persons desirous of purchasing ready made cloting cannot do better than avail themselves of this great bargain, for I am bound to sell my entire stock. This is the greatest bargain you will have to get your goods at the lowest figures.

I will sell out my entire stock, and I will state, without fear of contradiction, that the reputation of the Young America Clothing House, is more widely known than any similar institution of the kind in the State. Any one wishing to purchase the entire stock cannot do better than to avail themselves of this chance.

BUCKEYE SULKY

CORN PLOW,

MANUFACTURED BY

THOMAS & MAST,

Springfield, O.

It is no longer a question whether a riding Corn Plow is a practical machine; the question now is, which is the best? that is, which does the best work? which is the most easily managed? which is the most durable? which is the most easily repaired? in short, which is the most practical?

Farmers, Examine for Yourselves.

☞To prevent any misunderstanding in regard to the Corn Plows we are making, we would say that we are manufacturing two Riding Corn Plows, both called "Buckeye," as that is our Trade Mark. This has created some confusion in localities where both are sold. The above cut represents the Improved Buckeye, which we are now manufacturing largely.

There are many other corn plows in market, but farmers only need to see the "Buckeye" to be satisfied of its great superiority. During the week I have had them, forty have been engaged, and those who want them will be obliged to make their order early. Farmers who have calculated to buy others, after seeing these had given their orders at once.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned has assumed the General Subscription Agency for the sale of United States Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three tenths per cent. Interest, per annum known as the

SEVEN-THIRTY LOAN.

These Notes are issued under date of August 15th, 1864, and are payable three years from that time, in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

Gold-Bearing Bonds

These bonds are now worth a premium of nine per cent., including gold interest from Nov., which makes the actual profit on the 7-30 loan, at current rates, including interest, about ten per cent. per annum, besides its exemption from State and municipal taxation, which adds from one, to three per cent. more, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts to

| 20 | " | " | " | $1000 " |
| $1 | " | " | " | $5000 " |

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions. This is

THE ONLY LOAN IN MARKET

now offered by the Government, and it is confidently expected that its superior advantages will make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $200,000,000 remain unsold, which will probably be disposed of within the next 60 or 90 days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

ATWOOD'S PATENT DRILLING MACHINE,
PILE DRIVER,
AND
HYDRAULIC SAND PUMP.

PRACTICAL TESTS have fully demonstrated the superiority of this machine over all others for the purpose of sinking Oil Wells, the undersigned is now prepared to receive orders for the same.

This machinery comprises everything requisite for the boring of oil wells, excepting the STEAM ENGINE AND CAST IRON DRIVING PIPE, (but will be furnished, if desired, at a reasonable price), and dispenses with the use of the Derrick Rope, Bull wheel and other cumbrous and expensive fixtures now in use, and is so arranged, being constructed on wheels and portable that it can be easily removed for the purpose of sinking wells in different localities.

THE DETRITUS is removed from the well by our Patent Hydraulic process, and does not require the removal of the drill from the boring. This process not only removes all the detritus in from 5 to 10 minutes, but likewise effectually clears out and opens all the small oil veins that are so often entirely closed up by the old process of sand pumping.

WITH THIS MACHINE and a practical engineer, a well can be sunk from 400 to 600 feet within a period of from 15 to 20 days after the soil pipe has been driven.

Arrangements are being made for the construction and delivery of these machines at New York, Norwich Newburg, N. Y., and Pittsburg, Penn.

HON. WM. E. WHEELER, Special Agent, Beloit.

This Company was organized in 1850 and is one of the most popular and successful Life Insurance Companies in the United States.

It was the aim of the Corporators to fill a want in the community by organizing an Institution which should embody the stability of a purely stock Company with the advantages of a Mutual system, declaring all profits to the insured.

DIVIDENDS GUARANTEED.

And paid to the assured annually, thus greatly reducing the amount of premiums.
The amount of Dividends returned to the assured each year, determines the rate of premium per annum.

A Bona Fide Security of $150 for every $100 of Liabilities.

ENDOWMENT PLAN.

This is a non-forfeiting plan, whereby the advantages of Life Insurance are combined with those of a savings' bank. By this mode a policy is made payable to the assured on his attaining a given age, or should he die previous to that age, to his representatives at his death—thus making provision for old age, and at the same time securing beyond contingency, the full amount of insurance to one's family, in the event of early death.

This plan of insurance is becoming deservedly popular, and has received the unqualified approval of our best business men and financiers.

NON-FORFEITURE PLAN.

Premiums all paid in ten annual payments, securing a proportionate amount of the whole sum in a paid up policy, should circumstances make it necessary to discontinue further payments of premium at any time
Policies issued in all the various forms, and to apply to all the diversified relations of life.
A large amount of former premiums now invested in first class bonds and mortgages in Wisconsin.
All future premiums received in Wisconsin will be reloaned here.

[Translated from the French.]

After having played on the Piano of Messrs. Knabe & Co., it is impossible not to bear testimony to their qualities, which have acquired for them the eminent reputation which they enjoy. The Pianos of them manufacture, on which I have played, are exceedingly remarkable for their qualities. The bass is powerful without harshness, and the upper notes sweet, clear and harmoniously mellow, (chrystalline,) and I do not hesitate to express in regard to these instruments my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal if not superior to the best manufactured in Europe or this country by the most celebrated makers.

REAPERS, REAPERS FOR SALE AND REAPERS REPAIRED.—The undersigned have on hand about seventy-five of the Webber reapers, which were made last year and have been well housed since being made, which, owing to the high price of iron and material, can sell at least fifty per cent. cheaper for cash than any reapers made this season. Persons contemplating buying reapers, would do well to secure one of these as none others will be built of this pattern this summer.

We are also ready to commence repairing the Webber reaper. None others are wanted to repair. Any one wanting light gear put on the old belt reapers can have it changed here cheaper than at any other place in Rock county. Bring them along early. They will be done cheaper than if they were all brought in just before harvest. We will put on mowers for forty dollars each, which we will warrant to work well on tame grass and ordinarily smooth ground.

Any one who has bought the Webber reaper of L. B. Carle, in Janesville, can have the mowers on them as they are the same as those at Afton. The place of repairing is Afton, Wis.

A Bank-bill can be placed in the machine with a dozen dirty collars, and the collars washed clean, without doing the least injury to the bill. It is the simplest as well as the cheapest machine now in use.

The washing is entirely under the control of the operator, so that dirty parts of a garment can be washed without unnecessarily rubbing the clean parts. This machine can only be appreciated by seeing it in operation. It will be on exhibition in a few days.

From the Hon. Thomas B. Florence.
From the Hon. Thomas B. Florence.
From the Hon. Thomas B. Florence.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1st, 1864.

Gentlemen:—Having stated it verbally to you, I have no hesitation in writing the fact, that I experienced marked benefit from your Hoofland's German Bitters. During a long and tedious session of Congress, pressing and onerous duties nearly prostrated me. A kind friend suggested the use of the preparation I have named. I took his advice, and the result was improvement of health, renewed energy, and that particular relief I so much needed and obtained. Others may be similarly advantaged if they desire to be.

Truly your friend, THOMAS B. FLORENCE.

From John B. Witherlsham, Esq., firm of Witherlsham and Hutchinson, the celebrated manufacturers of Fancy Iron Works, 259 Canal street:

I am the recipient from you of one of the greatest favors that can be conferred upon man, viz., that of health. For many years have I suffered from one of the most annoying and debilitating complaints that the human family can be afflicted with, Chronic Diarrhœa.

During the long time I was suffering from this disease, I was attended by regular physicians, giving me but temporary relief. The cause seemed to remain until I was induced to try Hoofland's German Bitters. After the use of a few bottles of that valuable medicine, the complaint appeared to be completely eradicated.

I often inwardly thank you for such a valuable specific, and, when I have an opportunity, cheerfully recommend it, with full confidence in its reliability.

Truly yours, JOHN B. WITHERSHAM.
New York, Feb. 2, 1864.

From Julius Lee, Esq., firm of Lee & Walker, the most extensive Music Publishers in the United States, No. 722 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

February 8th, 1864.

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Gentlemen: My mother-in-law has been so greatly benefitted by your Hoofland's German Bitters that I concluded to try it myself. I find it to be an invaluable tonic, and unhesitatingly recommend it to all who are suffering from dyspepsia. I have had that disease in its most obstinate form—flatulence—for many years, and your Bitters has given me ease when everything else had failed.

Yours truly, JULIUS LEE.

From the Hon. Jacob Broom.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7th, 1863.

Gentlemen:—In reply to your inquiry as to the effect produced by the use of Hoofland's German Bitters in my family, I have no hesitation in saying that it has been highly beneficial. In one instance, a case of dyspepsia of thirteen years' standing, and which had become very distressing, the use of one bottle gave decided relief, the second effected a cure, and the third, it seems, has confirmed the cure, for there has been no symptoms of its return for the last six years. In my individual use of it, I find it to be an unequalled tonic and sincerely recommend its use to the sufferers.

Truly yours, JACOB BROOM, 1707 Spruce.

From Rev. W. D. Seigfried, Pastor of the 12th Baptist Church:

PHILADELPHIA, December 26th, 1863.

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Gentlemen: I have recently been laboring under the distressing effects of indigestion, accompanied by a prostration of the nervous system. Numerous remedies were recommended by friends, and some of them tested but without relief. Your Hoofland's German Bitters were recommended by persons who had tried them, and whose favorable mention of the Bitters induced me also to try them. I must confess that I had an aversion to Patent Medicines, from the "thousand and one" quack "Bitters," whose only aim seems to be to palm off sweetened and drugged liquor upon the community, in a sly way; and the tendency of which, I fear, is to make many a confirmed drunkard. Upon learning that yours was really a medicinal preparation, I took it with happy effect. Its action not only upon the stomach, but upon the nervous system, was prompt and gratifying. I feel that I have derived great and permanent benefit from the use of a few bottles

Very respectfully yours, W. D. SEIGFRIED,
No. 254 Shackamaxon Street.

From the Rev. Thos. Winter, D. D., Pastor of Roxbury Baptist Church:

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I feel it due to your excellent preparation, Hoofland's German Bitters, to add my testimony to the deserved reputation it has obtained. I have for years, at times, been troubled with great disorder in my head and nervous system. I was advised by a friend to try a bottle of your German Bitters. I did so, and have experienced great and unexpected relief; my health has been very materially benefitted. I confidently recommend the article where I meet with cases similar to my own, and have been assured by many of their good effects.

Respectfully yours, E. WINTER,
Roxbourough, Pa.

From Rev. J. S. Herman, of the German Reformed Church, Kutztown, Berks county, Pa.

Dr. C. Jackson—Respected Sir: I have been troubled with Dyspepsia nearly twenty years, and have never used any medicine that did me as much good as Hoofland's German Bitters. I am very much improved in health, after having taken five bottles.

Yours, with respect, J. S. HERMAN.

Patent Medicines.

THESE Bitters are prepared, in pure Bourbon Whiskey, from a combination of over twenty different kinds of roots, barks and herbs, which act in perfect concert one with other, prepared from the original formula given by the great chief, Red Jacket, to Dr. Chapin, who used them successfully in his practice for many years, and by their use gained so great a popularity in the treatment and cure of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Constipation, Sick and Nervous Headache, Fever and Ague, and all diseases arising from torpid liver or indigestion. Persons suffering from either of these loathsome diseases will find a sure cure by the use of these Bitters, which are perfectly pure and free from all those drugs and poisons usually put up in such preparations and palmed off on an unsuspecting public. A single trial will convince the most skeptical that in the RED JACKET there is virtue which no other Bitters possess.

They strengthen and invigorate the system.
They are unequaled for general debility.
They are a sure cure for dyspepsia.
They give a good and healthy appetite.
They assist digestion.
They are the best stimulant in existence.
They are a preventive of Fever and Ague.
They relieve constipation.
They cure Nervous Headache.
They are perfectly pure and palatable

Aged persons and delicate females will find they can save large doctor's bills by the use of these Bitters.

Beware of counterfeits. The Red Jacket Bitters are only sold in bottles with our name blown on the bottle, and our private government stamp across the cork. —OUR—

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,

STRANGURY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms.

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back and through the hips? A teaspoonful a day of the Constitution Water will relieve you like magic.

PHYSICIANS

Have long since given up the use of buchu, cubebs and juniper in the treatment of these diseases, and only use them for the want of a better remedy.

CONSTITUTION WATER

has proved itself equal to the task that has devolved upon it.

DIURETICS

Irritate and drench the kidneys, and by constant use soon lead to chronic degeneration and confirmed disease.

We present the Constitution Water to the public with the conviction that it has no equal in relieving the class of diseases for which it has been found so eminently successful for curing; and we trust that we shall be rewarded for our efforts in placing so valuable a remedy in a form to meet the requirements of patient and physician.

IN DYSMENORRHŒA, OR PAINFUL MENSTRUATION, AND MENORRHAGIA, OR PROFUSE FLOWING.

Both diseases arising from a faulty secretion of the menstrual fluid—in one case being too little and accompanied by severe pain, and the other a too profuse secretion, which will be speedily cured by the Constitution Water.

That disease known as FALLING OF THE WOMB which is the result of a relaxation of the ligaments of that organ, and is known by a sense of heaviness and dragging pains in the back and sides, and at times accompanied by sharp, lancinating or shooting pains through the parts, will, in all cases, be removed by the medicine.

There is another class of symptoms arising from IRRITATION OF THE WOMB, which physicians call Nervousness, which word covers up much ignorance, and in nine cases out of ten the doctor does not really know whether the symptoms are the disease, or the disease the symptoms. We can only enumerate them here. I speak more particularly of Cold Feet, Palpitation of the Heart, Impaired Memory, Wakefulness, Flashes of Heat, Languor, Lassitude, and Dimness of Vision.

SUPPRESSED MENSTRUATION,

Which in the unmarried female is a constant recurring disease, and through neglect the seeds of more grave and dangerous maladies are the result; and as month after month passes without an effort being made to assist nature, the suppression becomes chronic, the patient gradually loses her appetite, the bowels are constipated, night sweats come on, and consumption finally ends her career.

RAILROAD LANTERNS, of the latest patterns, for Kerosene Oil, just received at the Philadelphia Drug Store. sept29dawtfe96

Miscellaneous.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned has assumed the General Subscription Agency for the sale of United States Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three tenths per cent. interest, per annum known as the

SEVEN-THIRTY LOAN.

These Notes are issued under date of August 15th, 1864, and are payable three years from that time, in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

Gold-Bearing Bonds

These bonds are now worth a premium of nine per cent., including gold interest from Nov., which makes the actual profit on the 7-30 loan, at current rates, including interest, about ten per cent. per annum, besides its exemption from State and municipal taxation, which adds from one, to three per cent. more, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts to

| One cent per day on a $50 note. | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Two cents | " | " | " | $100 " |
| Ten | " | " | " | $500 " |
| 20 | " | " | " | $1000 " |
| $1 | " | " | " | $5000 " |

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions. This is

THE ONLY LOAN IN MARKET

now offered by the Government, and it is confidently expected that its superior advantages will make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $200,000,000 remain unsold, which will probably be disposed of within the next 60 or 90 days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

Subscriptions will be received by the

ATWOOD'S PATENT DRILLING MACHINE,

PILE DRIVER,

AND

HYDRAULIC SAND PUMP.

PRACTICAL TESTS having fully demonstrated the superiority of this machine over all others for the purpose of sinking Oil Wells, the undersigned is now prepared to receive orders for the same.

This machinery comprises everything requisite for the boring of oil wells, excepting the STEAM ENGINE AND CAST IRON DRIVING PIPE, (but will be furnished, if desired, at a reasonable price), and dispenses with the use of the Derrick Rope, Bull wheel and other cumbrous and expensive fixtures now in use, and is so arranged, being constructed on wheels and portable that it can be easily removed for the purpose of sinking wells in different localities.

THE DETRITUS is removed from the well by our Patent Hydraulic process, and does not require the removal of the drill from the boring. This process not only removes all the detritus in from 5 to 10 minutes, but likewise effectually clears out and opens all the small oil veins that are so often entirely closed up by the old process of sand pumping.

WITH THIS MACHINE and a practical engineer, a well can be sunk from 400 to 600 feet within a period of from 15 to 20 days after the soil pipe has been driven

Arrangements are being made for the construction and delivery of these machines at New York, Norwich Newburg, N. Y., and Pittsburg, Penn.

This Company was organized in 1850 and is one of the most popular and successful Life Insurance Companies in the United States.

It was the aim of the Corporators to fill a want in the community by organizing an Institution which should embody the stability of a purely stock Company with the advantages of a Mutual system, declaring all profits to the insured.

DIVIDENDS GUARANTEED.

And paid to the assured annually, thus greatly reducing the amount of premiums.

The amount of Dividend returned to the assured each year, determines the rate of premium per annum.

A Bona Fide Security of $170 for every $100 of Liabilities.

ENDOWMENT PLAN.

This is a non-forfeiting plan, whereby the advantages of Life Insurance are combined with those of a savings' bank. By this mode a policy is made payable to the assured on his attaining a given age, or should he die previous to that age, to his representatives at his death—thus making provision for old age, and at the same time securing beyond contingency, the full amount of insurance to one's family, in the event of arly death.

This plan of insurance is becoming deservedly popular, and has received the unqualified approval of our best business men and financiers.

NON-FORFEITURE PLAN.

Premiums all paid in ten annual payments, securing a proportionate amount of the whole sum in a paid up policy, should circumstances make it necessary to discontinue further payments of premium at any time

Policies issued in all the various forms, and to apply to all the diversified relations of life.

[Translated from the French.]

After having played on the Piano of Messrs. Knabe & Co., it is impossible not to hear testimony to their qualities, which have acquired for them the eminent reputation which they enjoy. The Pianos of their manufacture, on which I have played, are exceedingly remarkable for their qualities. The bass is powerful without harshness, and the upper notes sweet, clear and harmoniously mellow, (chrystaline,) and I do not hesitate to express in regard to those instruments my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal if not superior to the best manufactured in Europe or this country by the most celebrated makers.
